

A black and white photograph of Masayuki Koga, a man with long dark hair and a beard, playing a shakuhachi flute. He is shown in profile, looking down at the instrument. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights on his face and the flute, and deep shadows elsewhere.

*Holiday Shakuhachi performance by Masayuki Koga
and the Japanese Music
Institute of America*

A benefit

Sunday, Dec 20th, 3-4:30pm

Tibetan Gallery & Studio
(in the Barlow)

Jointly benefiting
Tibetan Gallery & Studio
and the
Conscious Family Festival

Masayuki Koga has been a world-class performer, innovative composer and teacher of shakuhachi music for decades. Born and trained in Japan, a former member of the Ensemble Nipponia, Koga founded the Japanese Music Institute of America. The JMIA ensemble headed by Koga-sensei will play traditional pieces for shakuhachi as well as music written by Koga himself.

Performance * light Asian-inspired snacks, drinks & teas * special shopping discounts* $35

Tickets: <http://Holidays.BrownPaperTickets.com>